Those who want to vote at the April election must pay their pell tax before the 14th day of this month. The Knew Nothings, for the purpose of buying enough votes, by paying taxes, to carry ections, got the odious law through our Legislature which disfranchises every man who don't pay his tithe twenty days before the city election. Let every Democrat disappoint the originators of this infamous law by paying his poll tax at once. The tax is only $1 50 per head, and if any man is too poor to pay it, let him call on his neighbor for help. There are hundreds of generous Democrats in this citywho will not permit a poor man to be disfranchised because he can't pay $1 50, as Denocratic Meeting. There will be a meeting of the Democrats of the Fifth and Sixth Wards, on Wednesday evening, (March 9th,) in the City Court Room. A full attendance is expected. By order of the com-

Death of Hon. A. V. Brown. It will be seen by our Washington dispatche that the Hon. Aaron Vail Brown died at the Federal capital yesterday morning, March 8th, 1859. He was born in Brunswick county, Virginia, August 15th, 1795, and was therefore in his 64th year. He graduated at the University of North Carolina in 1814, and began the practice of law in Nashville, Tenn , a few years afterwards. He was a partner of the late President Polk until the latter entered upon his Congressional career and abandoned the law for politics. Mr. Brown's political career began in 1821, when he was elected to the Legislature of Tennessee. From this date until 1832 he was constantly in the Legislature. In 1839 he was elected to Congress, and served in that capacity until 1845. He was then elected Governor of Tennessee. In 1850 he was a delegate to the Southern Convenion held at Nashville, and was the author of the report submitted to that body known as the Tennessee Platform. He was a member of the Democratic Convention at Baltimore in 1852, when he reported the Tennessee Platform. In 1857 he was appointed Postmaster General by President Buchanan, and departed this life while holding that office. and the Democracy a sterling member. He was one end of the land to the other by all who loved the good and admired the great. To the South his loss will be particularly felt, for he was one of those friends of the South who was ever ready to serve her and to stand by her constitutional rights. Abolitionism, or any kindred fanaticism of Northern origin, found no sympathy in his great heart. He loved the South, because the South is right, and sad indeed will be his loss to the Southern States of this Confedracy.

DISTINGUISHED VISITORS .- We were pleased with a visit yesterday from the Hon. Joshua F. Bell, and the Hon. W. C. Anderson, of Danville, Ky. The former, the Know Nothing candidate for Gubernatorial honors, is too clever a gentleman to be beaten as he will be next August, and the latter will not escape a similar defeat if he attempts the race for Congress in the Fourth Dis trict. If Bell gets through, under a beat of 20,000, ne will be lucky, and Anderson will not consider nimself defeated, unless the Democracy roll up a majority of several hundreds against him. We feel sorry for these clever men, but we can offer them no cheer. The fate of their party makes their's sad indeed. THEATER.-The "American Cousin" has had are well sustained. Mr. Drew is a very pleasing quite a run at the theater, and all of the characters actor and entirely deserving the favor he has re ceived from the Louisville public. The American Cousin will be repeated to-night, together with Drews' own version of "Camille," with songs, and

"Our Wife." A capital bill. CHOICE TOBACCO.-Yesterday, among the auction sales at the Ninth-street warehouse, was a hogshead of choice Kentucky leaf tobacco, which sold for $17 50 per hundred. It was grown by Mr. D. Poor, of Hart county, and purchased by J. T. Edmunds, manufacturer in this city, for cigar

Joseph Barker, the notorious infidel lecturer, who has recently been harranguing street audiences in Pittsburgh, was on Sunday arrested to an advertisement in another column. It is one of the most desirable places for sale within easy reach of the city. The encouragement of home manufacture is being exemplified by the numerous orders for Hurley's quick yeast received from the neighboring towns and villages. Our Kentucky house keepers know how to appreciate a good article.

ndecent in conduct towards a little girl, was nerely held to bail for assault and battery, the facts not justifying the first charge named. There was not an arrest up to 10 o'clock last night, from which we infer that order reigns

[For the Louisville Courier.] Flour Inspection.

Editors Louisville Courier: Our Council, in their wisdom, have refused to comply with the wishes of the flour dealers, millers and bakers of our city, who, without exception, joined in a petition to them to revoke the compulsory feature of the flour inspection law. We certainly are blessed in having a very wise Council to understand our interests so much better than we do ourselves. They are consistent, too. They first enacted the law without knowing whether it was needed, which they did with great haste, and they are now resolved to maintain it. A little insight into the getting up of this ordinance would prove interesting, but the law itself is more so. A writer in the Journal, of Feb. 18th, under the signature of 'Louisville," said sufficient to induce the repeal of this ordinance, without going into particulars, to convince ordinary minds, and leave unsaid things which may erroneously be taken personally; but such is not intended, as the inspectors we have are as good and honorable as can be had, and one of them has been magnanimous enough to coness that the law is an absurdity and a hu and that he would have signed the petition him-self had it been presented to him. It matters ittle that other cities have flour inspec pulsory. Every city is peculiarly circumstanced. We know that we do not need it, and that is sufficient. Not a barrel of flour is sold to a baker or family, but with the condition that if it is not such as recommended, the mouey shall be refund-ed, and the flour taken back at the vender's cost. ed, and the hour taken back as the venuer's cast. The method of inspection is wrong and iniquitous, because doughing is the only correct manner of judging, and the amount abstracted with their erroneous augers is unnecessary, and is only done through greediness.
From 160 barrels 117 pounds of flour was withdrawn a few days ago, in sampling it, by an in-spector, every barrel of which passed extra. Who loses or gains by that transaction? Why, the miller, three cents for inspection, the consumer three-quarters of a pound of flour, and the in-spector gains both. The flour is not enhanced one cent in value, for no person pays any atten-tion to whether it is inspected or not, as it does not concern them in the least. It is a notorious fact that scarcely a purchaser comes into our market to buy flour from our millers, but refuses to ket to buy hour from our influers, but the base it inspected, preferring to take it on his judgment, and save the boring and branding of the barrels, and the flour witdrawn in the operation, as it only tends to depreciate it that much in the market to which it is shipped, where it will receive a different classification, perhaps.

Our inspectors do not hold relatively a proper position. They are competitors of the worst description, and their rivalship is of no public gain, as in commerce. To illustrate: A lot of flour is received by a dealer. He wishes it passed extra, or crossed as the case may be He intimates his or crossed, as the case may be. He intimates his wishes, and the thing is done accordingly, or goes the inspector's head. If crossed, which done with chalk, the flour is discounted fifty cents per barrel, and it can be forwarded by the con signee to another market, with that much pros ect of gain. The country miller suffers this loss and the commerce of our city is thus far injured, as the miller must seek another market. This is an imaginary case, but it is worthy of considera n by the public, not the Councilmen. The esident and directors of the Corn and Flour Exhange at Baltimore have openly condemned the compulsory system of inspection, for numerous reasons, but we need not their corroboration. We know ourselves we don't want it, and that it is impossible to frame a law whereby flour will be enhanced by the operation, or the consumer or manufacturer benefitted. But our Council says nay, and they know, certainly. We are a prying people—perhaps too inquisitive—but if it is not people—perhaps too inquisitive—but if it is not too presumptuous, we should like this Delphic pracle would inform its supplicants the reasons why they are so seemingly neglected. We feel that we are numerous, respectable and respectful; our intelligence is all we doubt, and we sigh for knowledge and desire to be loyal, but blind obedience is not the order of the day, CITIZEN.

[Correspondence of the Louisville Courier.] Beware of the Imposter.

WESTPORT, Ky., March 7, 1859. Editors Louisville Courier: A few days ago an able statesman, the South a noble champion, tire stranger, pretending to be an agent for obtaining subscribers to Godey's Lady's Book and an accomplised gentleman, a kind companion, and true man. His death will be deplored from duced price—much lower than their own pubtion of the people here out of eighteen or twenty dollars cash. Not satisfied with the hooty here obtained, he proceeded to the country between this place and La Grange, and I am credibly informed imposed on many others in the same way Suspecting that all was not right, and as he signed of $50 has been offered by them for his apprehen-tion. sion. Desirous of putting others on their guard against the base impositions of this swindler and imposter, I will further mention that he is about 25 years old, has sandy hair and whiskers, is of florid complexion, of about medium size, and about five feet eight or nine inches high.

Respectfully yours, E. P. JOHNSTON, P. M. Ohio Life and Trust Company. COLUMBUS, O., March 7.—There is a great deal of speculation here as to the character of the report on the Breslin defa cation and Ohio Life & Trust Company failure, which will be presented to the Legislature to-morrow morning, hundred and thirty thousand dollars have been recovered from Breslin.

It is understood that securities representing one hundred and thirty thousand dollars have been recovered from Breslin.

It is also understood, upon good authority, that the forthcoming report gives such a clue that the State will be able to recover the entire amount of the defalcation—three-quarters of a million—if she will follow the matter up vigorously.

Breslin's affidavit is little more than an appeal for forgiveness. The disclosures of importance were wrung from other parties.

New York, March 5.—A collision occurred this morning on the New Jersey R. R. near Jersey City. Two locomotives and several cars were smashed and several passengers injured, among them Signor Casti, editor of the Eco d'Italia, but no lives lost. Damage $25,000.

Another accident occurred in this city on the Hudson River R. R. A little Irish boy was crushed and the wheels of the train and severely indunder the wheels of the train and severely injured. The Irishmen in the neighborhood on hearing of the accident turned out en masse, and were proceeding to tear up the rails when a strong detachment of police was sent to the scene and A KENTUCKY DOCTOR RAGING.—Doctor Jordan, a young Kentucky Esculapius, attended the medical commencement at the Smithsonian Institute, Washington, on Thursday last. While there he fancied that one of the orators intended to cast personal reflections on a friend of his, and rising up in the midst of the audieuce, began to make a correction of the obnoxious remarks. He was thereupon expelled from the hall, but not before he had drawn a revolver, frightened the ladies, and excited general confusion. On reaching the doorway he pulled a stiletto from under his vest, and we about to expents summary vengeance. and was about to execute summary vengeance on the persons who had carried him out, when the police arrived and took him to the station house. An examination before a justice resulted in his being fined $50 and costs, and bound over in $200 and in default committed for three days. His ribaldry and blasphemy had been the subject of frequent complaint.

Mr. C. C. Spencer's sale of dry goods, clothing, millinery goods, fancy articles, summer clothing, and linen bosom shirts, is well worthy the attention of our city and country merchants. The sale takes place this morning at Mr. Spencer's auction rooms, on Main street, between Third and Fourth.

Those who wish to purchase a snug and well improved place on the turnpike road, only three and a half miles from the city, are referred to General Lamar, the American Charge de Affairs at Nicaragua, as an intemperate man—stating that he was recently found in a state of intoxication when he should have been discharging important duties in connection with his office. These statements have not been contradicted, but I am now athorized to deny them by the very highest authority. There is not the last foundation for them. General Lamar is an abstemious man. THE CULVER CASE.—The case of the Communweath vs. young Culver, came up before the city court on yesterday. This case has been one of considerable excitement, as it involved the character of young Culver's father. Suffice it to say that the character of Culver has been sufficiently vindicated, and that he stands before the public, as he is known to be, an upright, honest, correct man. The able and talented efforts of W. C. Price and Geo. W. Hite, Esq., on the part of the Culvers, will long be recollected by those who witnessed the case.

Another man, name unknown, was also shot through the arm, but the wound is not serious. Bowles was arrested and taken to jail.

The Princess Disaster-Additional News. We met yesterday, a Mr. Rundell, from Harrisonburg, Ky., who was on the Princess at the sonburg, Ky., who was on the Princess at the time of the explosion. He says the accident occurred about half past 9 o'clock, some of the passengers being still at breakfast, at private tables. He was standing on the guards, abreast of the clerk's office, and was precipitated into the river by the explosion. He says he was not aware that the boat was running with an unusual amount of steam, but thinks the explosion was an accident which no human power could have prevented. This gentleman was kindly treated here, several of the native Kentuckians, of whom we have many in our city, offering him any assistance he might need, and Gen. McMackin, the worthy proprietor of the Washington Hotel, doing all he could to promote his comfort. Mr. Rundell was not much hurt, his left arm only heing slightly scalled.

Among the many incidents related to us of the terrible disaster, we have been told that one of the subordinate engineers, while dying, related to a lady the circumstances of the explosion, and in his dying moments exclaimed, "I told him she would not bear so much steam"—evidently referring to the foolhardness of the engineer who was killed, and who determined to run her to New Orleans within a certain time or blow New Orleans within a certain time or blov

The state of where such an event could take place is worse than that of the cannibal islands. The ferocity of the mob that murdered Lowe is amazing. It is the mob that murdered Lowe is amazing. It is difficult to understand how human beings could become such fiends. The circumstances briefly stated are as follows: Lowe, a desperate man, was anxious to fight a duel with Maxwell, and failing to obtain an acceptance of his challenge, proceeded, armed, to the vicinity of his enemy's office, and called upon him to come forth. Maxwell made his appearance, surrounded by a mob armed with shot guns, rifles, pistols and bowie knives, and commenced an attack upon Lowe, armed with shot guns, rifles, pistols and howie knives, and commenced an attack upon Lowe, who fled amid a volley of shots, and a man who attempted to shelter him, was killed on the spot. Lowe is said to have worn a coat of mail, which saved his life at the time, but he was wounded in the hands and legs, and mastered by his pursuers. He begged for his life, asked Maxwell's pardon, and was carried to jail, where his wounds were dressed. A report was circulated that he threatened to kill, one by one, all who had assaulted him, and a party of those who considered themselves threatened, proceeded to the jail, and murdered him in bed. We do not know that Lowe deserves any sympathy. It is evident that he intended to assassinate Maxwell, and was a blood thirsty, dangerous man. But the barbarity of those who fell upon him, and slaughtered him, is something fearful. The worst feature is, no one

A BRIEF HISTOSY OF FOUR BANK CLERKS .- A writer in the New York Tribune states that in the winter of 1854-5, four young bank clerks used to meet for euchre playing alternately at their resi-dences in Brooklyn. These meetings continued meet for euchre playing alternately at their residences in Brooklyn. These meetings continued pleasantly for a while, the party keeping early hours, and no gambling beirg allowed. A year later the party was not reorganized, but met accidentally on Christmas eve, at a raffle in Brooklyn. The downward path was already entered upon. The results sum up as follows: One of the young men is traveling in Europe, his bondsmen having paid $3,000 for him, in which sum he was in default at the bank where he was employed. Another is in Sing Sing prison for forgery. The third is Oscar S. Field, the recent defaulter in Brooklyn, and now wandering with the mark of Cain upon his brow—the murderer of his own

And as the latter cast a glance over the past, a shudder creeps through his frame as he thinks over the fate of his companions, and thanks a merciful God that saved him from the abyss into which he had almost plunged himself.

There were other bank clerks among the party, and are long their defelections must come to light. and ere long their defalcations must come to light, for hey have been posessed of sums which they could not have come by honesty.

THE LAST CUNNINGHAM-BURDELL CHAPTER.—We wrote the articles, backed up with affidavits. The author of the articles entitled "Matrimonial Brokerage," including those relative to Mrs. Cunningham, is Alfred C. Hills, the city editor of the Post. Mr. Hills makes affidavit to the truth of his assertions in those articles. Mr. Hills, under an assumed name, investigated every Matrimonial Broker's office in New York and Brooklyn, which investigation ran through fourteen months, and the results of which were published in the Post. Mr. Hills makes affidavit that the woman was Mrs. Cunningham, the same woman who was tried for whom Hills saw in the toombs on said charge and with whom in said prison he had two inter-views that were published in the Post.

The Azores, it is feared, will again be the theater of destitution and suffering in the coming season, as they were in 1858. An official dispatch from Charles W. Dabney, Esq., United States Consul at Fayal, to the State Department, under date of January 22, says: "With deep regret I have to announce the total failure of the vintage of 1858, in consequence of the combined action of the oidium and tempesatious weather, the destruction of three-fourths of the potato crop and one-fourth of the corn crop of the district. The misery that these calamities occasion is indescribable, and many of the poorer families will be compelled to emigrate, as the famine of last year exhausted their resources.

to be the friends of Maxwell in the Hawesville tragedy were not so much his friends as they were the enemies of Lowe. They made use of the Maxwell difficulty as a means of wreaking their vengeance upon Lowe, whom they hated more than they loved Maxwell. Indeed, had it not been for some of these enemies of Lowe acting as the friends and advisers of Maxwell, we doubt not that the difficulty would have been adjusted without the shedding of blood.

ATTORNEY GENERAL,

Thomas Withrow was the enemy of Lowe, be cause Lowe had induced Murry Brown to go be fore the Grand Jury and indict him for taking $60 out of Brown's pocket, under the following circumstances: Withrow, Davidson, Oldham, and Brown were on a boat about one year ago, at the Hawesville wharf. A dispute arose between Brown and Oldham about taking more drinks .-Brown drew off his coat and vest, and threw them upon the floor as if to fight. Oldham then, giving the fight a playful turn, gathered up Brown and bore him to the wharf. While this was being done, Withrow took from the vest pocket of Brown $60, without accounting for the same when Brown missed the money and asked him about it. Withrow never would have acknowledged that he got the money if Davidson had not told Lowe that he saw him take it. Lowe after hearing it, at once persuaded Brown to go before the Grand Jury and indict him. The in dictment was pending and under trial while Lowe was in jail Wednesday morning, but was dismissed for some informality, (not after Lowe's death, as we stated yesterday, but immediately before,) and so soon as it was dismissed, Withrow went to the jail and prevented any further action of Lowe in the matter, by murdering him in his

Sam Pell, one of the Grand Jury, had a difficulty with Lowe at Cloverport two years ago, and no doubt others engaged in some one of the acts of the horrible tragedy had old offences to settle with Lowe, and took advantage of the Maxwell difficulty to get at him. It is a great pity that Maxwell was not saved from his officious friends, for if he had been, his difficulty with Lowe would have been settled without the sheding of blood, and the disgrace of the fair fame of Cheering Light in Appalling Darkness The many things in the terrible Hawesville tragedy which cast their dark shadow over law, order, decency, bravery and humanity, are relieved by a few golden beams of the glorious light of Kentucky chivalry. Let not these heavenly rays be eclipsed by the infernal darkness cure. I found it efficacious in removing the extreme that threatens to envelop every one connected with the tragedy in its hideous mantle.

Let it not be forgotten that when Lowe was fleeing from his pursuers, a gentleman by the name of A. M. Mayo, who was his personal enemy, stood between him and his assailants, and reclaimed that the life of Lowe should not be aken in such a dastardly way. A few days before this Mayo had been shot at by Lowe, and the isunderstanding between them was suspended, not settled. Such an act of nobleness on the part of Mayo is worthy of being recorded and rememered. He is a man, a true man, whose conduct is a bright spot on the dark page of the Hawes-

And, while speaking of Mayo, it should be re membered that it was this brave and magnanimons gentleman who searched Lowe, in the presence of his assailants, to find out if he had on a coat of mail as, charged. The lie was given to the slanderous charge, made by dastardly foes as an excuse for their cowardly bullets not killing im, by this public examination. with an affliction of the Bladder and Kidneys for over twenty years. I have tried Physicians in vain, and twenty years. I have tried Physicians in vain, and at last concluded to give your Genuine Preparation a trial, as I had heard it highly spoken of. It afforded me immediate relief. I have used three bottles, and I have obtained more relief from its effects, and feel much better than I have for twenty years previous. I have the greatest faith in its virtues and curative powers, and shall do all in my power to make it known to the afflicted. Hoping that this may prove advantageous to you in assisting you to introduce the medicine.

I am truly yours, M. McCORMICK.

Among the gems which we are in receipt of will be found— A Broadway Lo t& Country Residence The Lot is fifty-two feet front by two hundred and fifteen deep, to a 20 foot alley, south side, between Eighth and Ninth streets. The Residence is on the Frankfort pike, about two miles beyond the Fair Grounds. It is within five minutes' walk of Gilman's Station (generally known as the Point), where the Accommodation Train stops, going out at 5 in the afternoon and returning at 8 in the morning, thus allowing one to attend to business in the city without loss of time. There are two Churches, a Postoffice, and select School, in the immediate neighborhood. The place handsome, has between four and five acres of rich level land, with plenty of ohoice bearing fruit trees; several premiums having been obtained for the fruit. The buildings are partly new and expensively finished, some eight or ten rooms in all, besides servant's apartments, ice house, carriage house, stabling, hen house, &c.

This is a desirable little place for any one wishing a healthy retirement out of the city, and yet within a few minutes ride to it by the cars. I will sell low or exchange it for a suitable house and lot in the city and give early possession.

BY TELEGRAPH.

Washington, March 8.—Postmaster-General Brown died this morning at half-past nine o'clock. Up to a quarter of an hour previous he was perfectly conscious of his condition, and took leave of his family. Last night the President had a final interview with him, and was affected to tears. During the occasional delirium the dying man called for the bill, evidently alluding to the defeated appropriation bill having reference to the Postoffice Department. His death occasions the utmost sorrow among all classes of the community. Death of Postmaster-General Brown. munity.

LYON'S MAGNETIC POWDERS. Will destroy Garden Insects, Cockroaches, Bed Bugs, Fleas Anis Moths, and all pests of the vermin kind.

Bugs, rieas this motins, and all pests of the vermin kind.

The importance of a reliable article of this kind is inestimable. In warm weather all nature teems with these annoying foes. This powder is the only article ever discovered which will exterminate them. A company of botanists, from the Horticultural Society of Paris, while amidst the ferns of Asia, observed that all insects lighting upon a certain kind of plant very soon dropped dead. This fact was made use of to guard their night camps from these intruders. Quantities of the plant were brought home by Mr. E. Lyon, and found a positive insect destroyer in every experiment. It is simply a powdered leaf, chemically prepared to resist the effect of age and climate. Medals and Letters Patent have been obtained from the Governments of England, France, Germany, and Russia, from the World's Fair, and numerous medical and horticultural colleges, and societies.

Letters from the President of the United States.

Every gardener and house-keeper must have a direct interest in an article of this kind. Reference can be made to the Astor, St. Nicholas, and Metropolitian Hotels; to Judge Meigs, President of the American Institute; James Gordon Bennett, Gen. Winfield Scott, Cyrus W. Field, L. M. Pease, of the Five Points Mission, etc., etc. Judge Meigs says, "This discovery of prof. Lyon is of national importance. The Farmers' Club have tested it thoroughly. It will destroy locusts, grasshoppers, and; moths, bugs, and all vermin. Garden plants can be preserved, and houses made pure."

ntion has been called to an article White Lead which is represented as being made in this city, and is branded "Premium Pure Falls City." As we are the only manufacturers of Lead in this city, we will say that the said Lead is not made here. But those wanting that quality of Lead we can supply with an ar-ticle equal in every respect to the above brand of Lead at a price 20 per cent below that of the so-called manu-facturers of that article.

W. & F.

LINDENBERGER & CO.'S PREMIUM PURE FALLS CITY WHITE LEAD WE have not made any late changes in the manufacture of our White Lead, but continue to furnish the same, of the uniform and superior quality, which, in an extensive consumption here and elsewhere, in house and steamboat painting, has been so universally and highly approved for DURABILITY, BEAUTY OF FINISH, ECONOMY OF USE, AND THE COMBINED QUALITIES which make a first rate paint. The large number of first-class steamers now running to this port, and which have been painted with this Lead, afford a sufficient test of the quality and durability of this article, and furnish the best evidence to consumers of satisfaction in the use of it.

Orders solicited, quality warranted, and price as low as the best brands of the Western Manufacturers.

The proprietor, in calling the attention of the public to this preparation, does so with a feeling of the utmost confidence in its virtues and adaptations of the diseases for which it to recommended. It is no new and untried article, but one that has stood the test of a ten years' trial before the American people, and its reputation and sale is unrivalled by any similar preparation extant. The testimony in its favor given by the most prominent and well-known Physicians and individuals in all parts of the country is immense, and a careful perusal of the Almanac, published annually by the proprietor, and to be had gratis of any of his Agents, cannot but satisfy the most skeptical that this remedy is really deserving the great celebrity it has obtained.

Rheumatic, and Neuralgic Affections, it has in numerous instances proved highly beneficial, and in others effected a decided cure.

This is a purely vegetable compound, prepared on scrictly scientific principles after the manner of the celebrated Holland Professor, Borhave. Because of its great success in most of the European States, its introduction into the United States was intended more especially for those of our fatheriand scattered here and there over the face of this mighty country. Meeting with great success among them, I now offer it to the American public, knowing that its truly wonderful medicinal virtues must be acknowledged.

It is particularly recommended to those persons whose constitutions may have been impaired by the continuous use of ardent spirits, or other forms of dissipation. Generally instantaneous in effect, it finds its way directly to the seat of life, thrilling and quickening every nerveraising up the drooping spirit, and, in fact, infusing new health and vigor in the system.

NOTICE—Whoever expects to find this a beverage will be disappointed; but to the sick, weak and low spirited, it will prove a greatful aromatic cordial, possessed of singular remedial properties.

The river at Cincinnati, as we learn by our dispatches, was still falling yesterday, though but slowly, and it was falling at Pittsburgh.

The huge propeller Adriatic, from New Orleans, arrived at the foot of the falls yesterday, on her way to Pittsburgh, and Capt. John Cummins, falls pilot, undertook to lighten her to ascend the falls. There were but 5 feet water in the middle chute at the foot, and rather less above the dam, or in the pocket, the mud below having the tendency to keep the water up at the foot of the falls, owing to the slack current. The boat, however, couldn't be lightened fast enough, boat, however, couldn't be lightened fast enough, and after butting awhile at the dam returned.—She is too large for the canal, and will probably have to await another rise.

We learn from the Vicksburg Whig that the sherifi took command of the John McKee, Friday. Some twenty attachments had been served ou her owner, and there was a general fight on board Friday night amongst the officers, and the captain and bar-keeper bear some marks of the "muss" about the face. The bully Empress, fall of passengers, was at Evansville yesterday. She will be up early this morning, and returns to New Orleans to-morrow, Thursday, evening. THE WOODFORD .- This gallant craft, as we learn by a special dispatch from Capt. Irwin, was at Memphis yesterday. She has a good trip, and will be due here Friday, and return to New Orleans Saturday. The following is from the Cincinnati Gatte of yesterday:

On the way down from Pittsburgh, a deck hand named shields, on the steamer Belmont, fell overboard two alles below Mason City, and was drowned. He was en route to Louisville to visit a brother. He had a coat and arper bag, which have been left with Athearn & Hib-The Cincinnati and Louisville Mail Company held their annual meeting yesterday, and re-elected all old officers for the ensuing year.

THE DIAMOND ASHORE ON THE BANK .- We learn from the officers of the Time, from Tennessee river, that the Diamond, Capt. Hollcroft, was ashore at Parker Point, just above Uniontown, apparently in a crippled condition. She was lying head up stream, some 150 yards from the bank, in a corn-field, and the river falling fast.—
It was on Sunday morning early when the Time. It was on Sunday morning early when the Time passed along, and it was said the Diamond ran out there the night previous. Her larboard guard and a portion of the hull just forward of the boilers were crushed in, evidently by collision with the trees, or another point.

good trip of both passengers and freight, for St. Louis, and may have been blown ashore in a storm, as very high winds prevailed for several days after she left this port. Parker Point is a very short bend in the river, and the pilot may have run over the bank in mistake, or during a fog. The river was falling fast on Sunday, and, unless immediately got off, the boat would be left high and dry upon the shore.

FOR THE EAST.—The low pressure Jacob Strader is the mail and passenger packet for Cincinnati at noon, to-day. She travels at locomotive speed, has good officers, and can accommodate 300 passengers. The attentive clerk, R. S. Dunning, is prepared to give through tickets to the East. MAIL PACKET FOR MEMPHIS .- The fleet low pres-Mail Packet for Memphis.—The fleet low pressure Southerner, Capt. lever and courteous. THE PRINCESS DISASTER .- In the Courier, yes terday, we published a detailed account of the disaster to the Southern champion, Princess, by which over 100 lives were lost, but the full partiulars of the explosion were not given. An in imation was made that the engineer, who was tilled, was recklessly carrying too much steam, but we think the boilers were defective. COAL LOST .- Several coal boats, on the late run om this port, met with accidents along the low-r Ohio, and one of the pair, belonging to Thos. awcett, in charge of pilot H. Hudson, was lost, near Wabash island. It appears from the statement of the N. O. Picayune, that four of the boilers of the Princess exploded, and a few hours after the disaster, every vestige of the once magnificent boat, the pride of the South, had forever disappeared from the Virginia, was passenger on the Princess, and escaped uninjured.

DECISINN SUSTAINED.—Capt. Ross, the Supervising Inspector at St. Louis, has sustained the decision of the Local Inspectors in the collision case between the Uncle Sam and J. H. Dickey. Louis Pierce, pilot of the Uncle Sam, appealed from the lecision of the Local Board. He ran the boat in he chute at Saline island, contrary to the rules contracts at New Albany for a new boat for the Henderson trade. She is to be a clipper. The Eclipse cleared for New Orleans last
